ABOUT ME

I'm Ashen Thilakarathna, a tech writer and digital content creator based in Sri Lanka. With over 2,100 followers and 40,000+ monthly reads on Medium, I produce clear and practical articles on technology, AI tools, freelancing, and digital content monetization. My work reaches a wide global audience, helping readers from different backgrounds understand and use technology in their daily lives.

In addition to Medium, I connect with my audience through my personal blog and social media channels, building a trusted community of tech enthusiasts worldwide. I'm passionate about making complex topics easy to grasp and always look for new ways to bring value to my readers and partners
